To all Port St Mary residents

10th January 2022

Golf Course Consultation

The current lease on the Golf Course is due up for renewal at the end of September 2022. The Board have been discussing the future of the Golf Course and would like to consult with the residents and ratepayers of Port St Mary regarding their views for the future of the course.

Enclosed with this letter is a consultation document which we would be grateful for you to complete and return.

This consultation is being run to ensure that the Board of PSMC can plan their services based on the needs of the people of PSM while ensuring that your views are represented.

No decisions on the future of the course have already been taken by the Board and this consultation is designed to identify a range of opinions to assist the Board in that decision making process.

There is no intention to develop or sell the land to be developed for housing.

The consultation is due to close on Monday 21st March 2022, public 1-2-1 drop in sessions with a PSMC Board member and the Clerk to answer any queries prior to completing the consultation will be held in the East Room (old office) at the Town Hall as follows;

Wednesday 26th January 10-12am

Tuesday 1st February 2-4pm

Responses to the consultation will be collated, reported to the Board and published within 12 weeks of the closing date.

Yours faithfully

Hayley Fargher

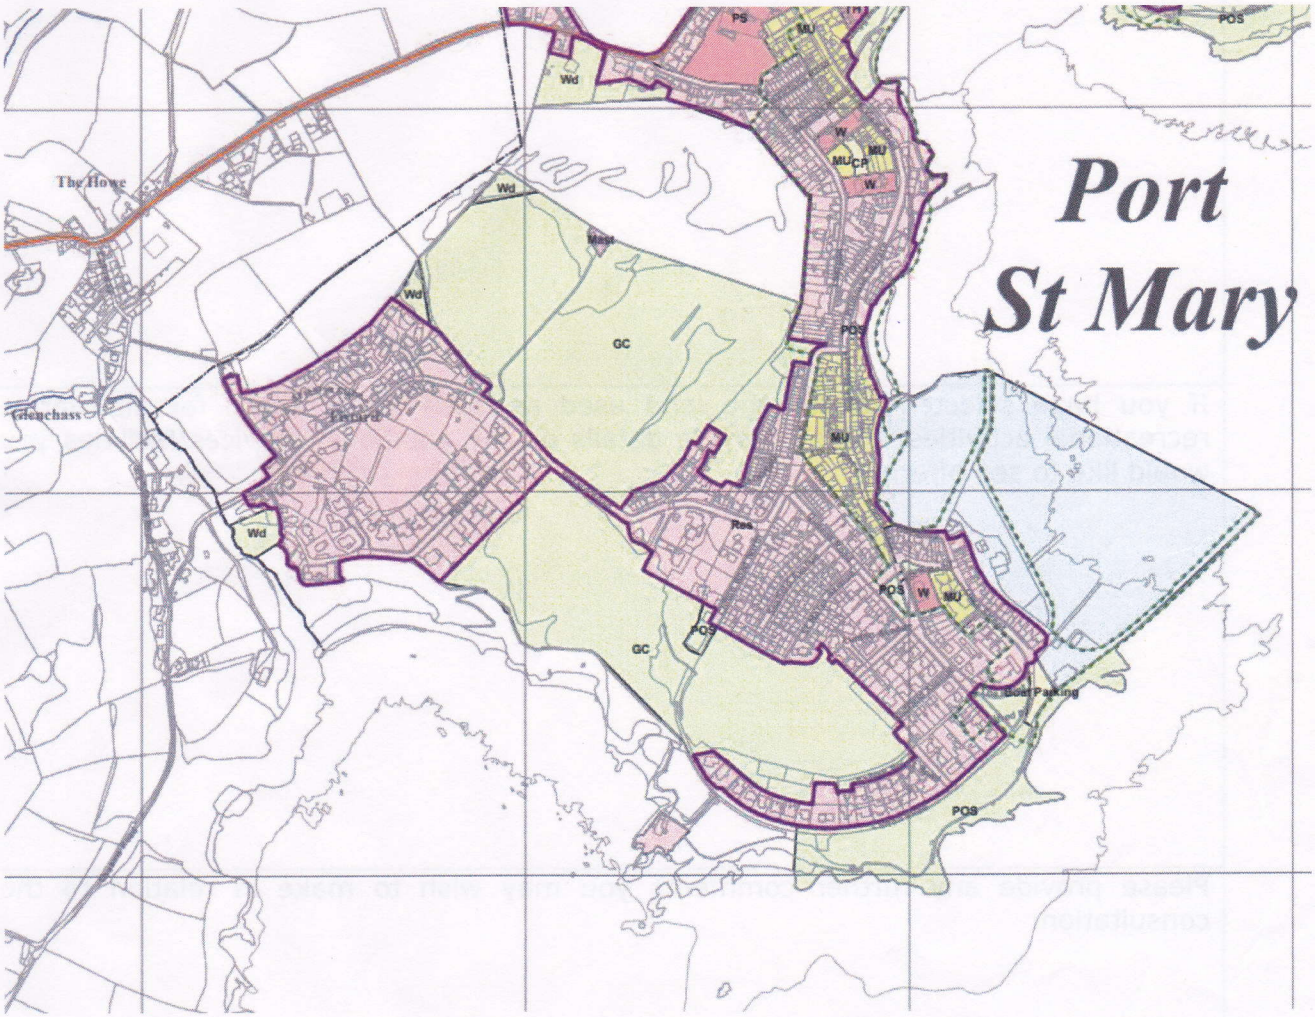

Clerk
